

Faith at Risk 5 Conference

Sponsored by Critical Issues Commentary & Twin City Fellowship

“The Dangers of the New Pop Spirituality”

When: Saturday, October 31, 2009

Where: Twin City Fellowship
2734 Rhode Island Ave S
St. Louis Park, MN 55426

Time: 9:00 AM – 4:00 PM

Free – no registration required - A light lunch will be provided - Freewill offering - No childcare

Conference Topics

Warren B. Smith's topics: The Big Picture/A Wonderful Deception

New Age Implications of The Shack, The Message Bible, The Purpose Driven Life

Bob DeWaay's topics: Oprah Spirituality: How Eastern mysticism is being nicely repackaged and deceiving millions as a new spirituality.

Emergence Theory: How pantheism and panentheism are being brought into the church and sold as a new spirituality of hope.

Featured Speakers

Warren B. Smith (B.A. University of Pennsylvania; M.S.W. Tulane University) is a free lance writer, researcher and seminar and conference speaker and author of Deceived on Purpose: The New Age Implications of the Purpose Driven Church; The Light That Was Dark: From the New Age to Amazing Grace; (New Book) A Wonderful Deception: The Further New Age Implications of the Emerging Purpose Driven Movement. Warren is a former New Age adherent who now works to expose the New Age ideas that he has seen infiltrating the church.

Bob DeWaay is the senior pastor of Twin City Fellowship in St. Louis Park, MN. He holds a B.A. in Bible and Pastoral Studies and an M.A. in Theological Studies from Bethel Theological Seminary. Occasionally, he is a guest on KKMS radio in the Twin Cities and on a number of radio stations across the country, and has a Critical Issues Commentary radio show on Oneplace.com. Pastor DeWaay is the author of two books, Redefining Christianity – Understanding The Purpose Driven Movement; and The Emergent Church – Undefined Christianity.